Peace Feelers Toward Hanoi?

Secret Contacts Reported By Detroit Paper

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Free Press said today the Nixon administration has made secret contacts with the new North Vietnam government in efforts to seek a negotiated settlement of the Vietnamese war.

Auto Suit Settlement Is Blasted

Congressmen Ask For Antitrust Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Forty-six congressmen have asked a federal judge to keep the Nixon administration from settling out of court an antitrust suit against the nation's largest automakers.

In a petition Friday to U.S. District Court Judge Jesse W. Curtis, the 44 Democrats and two Republicans asked that the auto manufacturers be tried on charges of "conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce in motor vehicle air pollution control equipment."

The judge set a hearing on the petition for Oct. 28.

The charges were brought in a lawsuit last Jan. 10 by then Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, who accused General Motors, Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp. and American Motors Corp. of conspiring for the past 15 years to delay installing antismog devices on cars.

SEPT. 11 AGREEMENT

On Sept. 11 the Justice Department agreed to settle the suit in return for assurances from the automakers and the Automobile Manufacturers Association that they will develop antismog devices competitively and refrain from deciding among themselves when the devices will be installed.

If approved by the judge, the settlement would have the force of a court decision, and the auto companies would be compelled to abide by it.

The congressmen contend the settlement "is not in the best interests of the people."

"It will deprive private litigants of the opportunity to take advantage of such facts and judgment which might have been proved and obtained by the government," the congressmen said.

'PRIVATE ACTIONS'

"Numerous cities, towns, counties and states throughout the nation are in the process of instituting private antitrust actions against these defendants ... If this court accepts the proposed consent decree then ... this would mean that private claimants would have to duplicate the time and costs of years of investigation that has already been paid for by the taxpayers."

A federal grand jury has spent nearly 18 months investigating the case, the congressmen said, and its evidence should be used on behalf of the public because "every resident of every urban center in the country ... everyone that breathes" has a vital interest.

The congressmen represent California, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Michigan and Missouri.

One source—who was not identified—was quoted as saying the contacts were directly related to the administration's request for a moratorium on criticism of President Nixon's Vietnam policies.

The newspaper, in a story from Washington by James McCartney, said the secret contacts were made to find out whether the present officials might be more favorably inclined to seek an end to the war than the late North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh.

Saying the site of the talks was not publicly known, the Free Press said apparently it was not Paris, where formal peace talks are under way.

The Nixon administration has not publicized the contacts, possibly because of their tentative, probing nature, the paper reported.

It said word has been circulated quietly in some high circles in Washington that "something is happening" involving the Vietnam conflict.

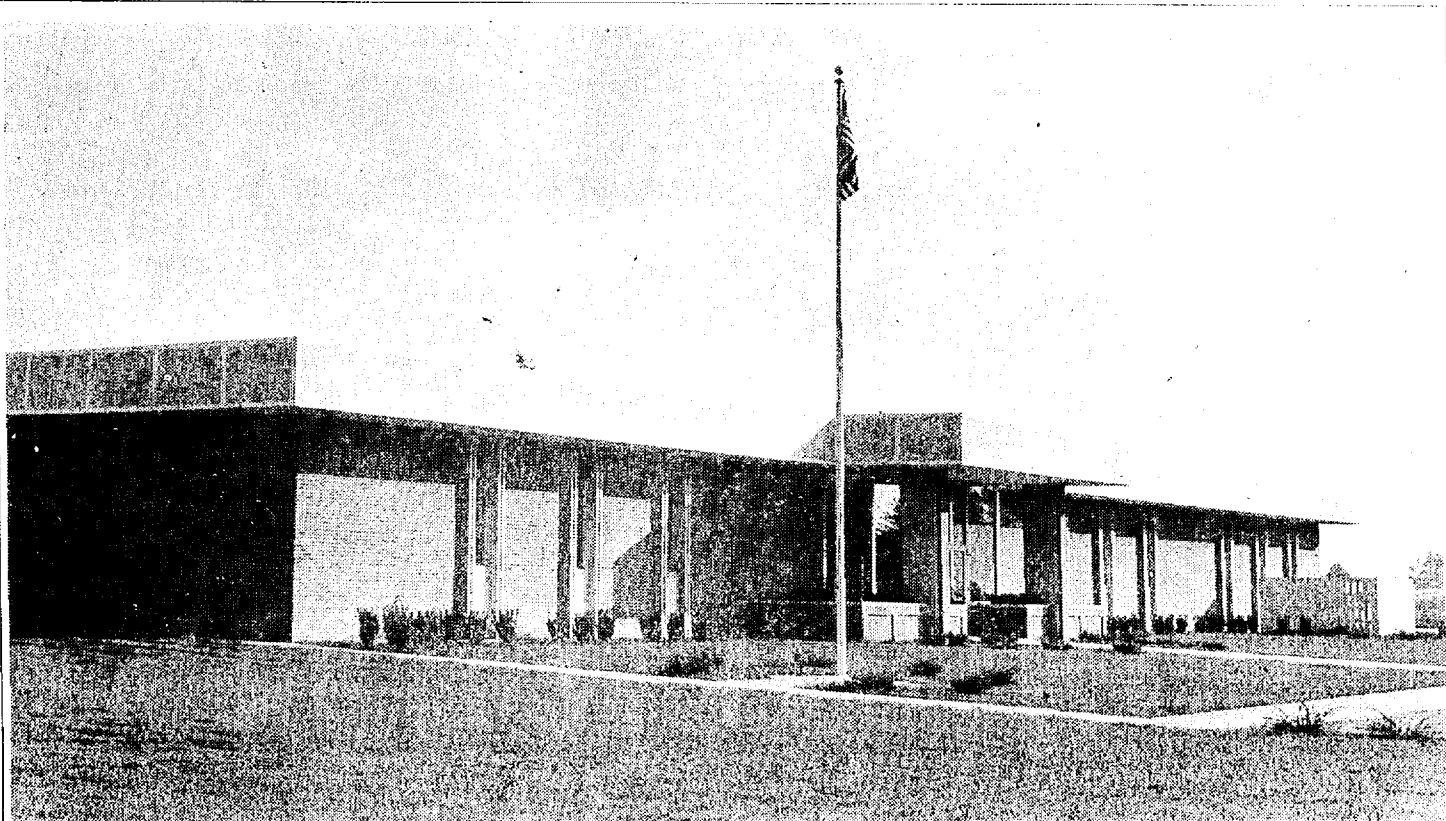

The story said administration officials are searching for the meaning of the current battlefield lull in Vietnam.

A State Department official was quoted in the story as saying, "There is no question but that if this lull continues it could be full justification for new withdrawals of U.S. troops."

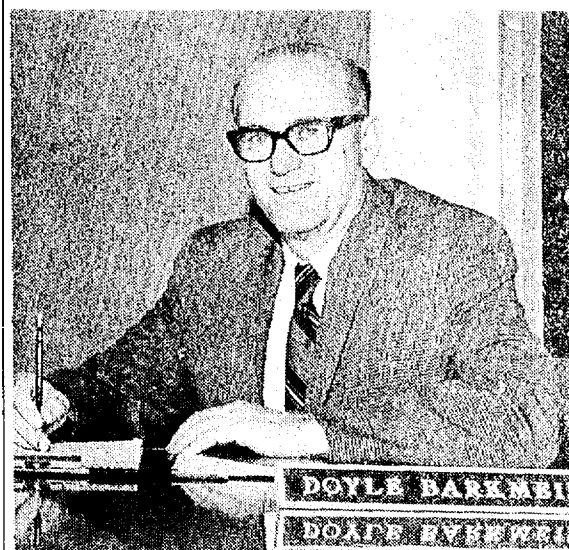

Earlier in the week, the Republican leadership in the Senate called for a 60-day moratorium on Vietnam criticism. The proposal was rejected by anti-war senators.

Around Our Towns Judges Advised: Be Candid With Press

TIPS on how to communicate with newsmen and the public is the theme of a 1,250-word article by Berrien Circuit Judge Chester J. Byrns of St. Joseph in the nationally-circulated Trial Judge's Journal for this month.

The journal, a trade magazine published quarterly by the National Conference of State Trial Judges at the American Bar Center in Chicago, is received by jurist, law schools, bar associations and lawyers across the U.S.

Judge Byrns was asked to pen an article on bench and press by the journal's executive editor, Judge George B. Richter. The article, "A Failure of Communication," says both judges and newsmen are dedicated to public service and that disputes and misunderstandings between the two groups are a failure of communication and not an inevitable conflict between the two.

It recommends that judges treat newsmen as attorneys whose time is just as valuable as that of the judge.

"Keep the door or the telephone open to a reporter who may be seeking information, or more likely, clarification or explanation of some matter, procedure or term," the article says.

It also warns judges that the news media frequently condenses the news.

"If the news media writes a story of one of your opinions, don't be upset if your 20 pages of breathless prose, clear logic and supporting authority is boiled down to five or six paragraphs. It has been written for the general public — not the appellate court. Sometime it is amazing how an experienced reporter can condense many pages of wisdom into a few paragraphs. The appellate court may get your complete rendition. (It might have preferred the news story.)"

It also recommends that judges refrain from "playing favorites" with reporters and that they answer newsmen's questions with specifics and not speeches.

"The best means the court has to communicate is through the news reporter in his court," the article concludes. "This author's experience is that a reporter will go at least half-way down the road to cooperation. It is up to the trial judge to walk with the other half."

Presidential Pressure Is Increasing

Demands For Withdrawal Mounting, Too

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has committed himself to a showdown vote on his Supreme Court nominee even though he so far lacks a possibly essential ingredient to victory—open support of his own Senate leaders.

Both Republican Leader Hugh Scott and GOP Whip Robert P. Griffin refused to take sides Friday as Nixon began to shift the full weight of his prestige into blunting criticism of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth.

Scott said he still would vote in the Senate Judiciary Committee to report the nomination to the floor but that he could not predict what the Senate—or even he—would do then.

Scott even added a note of faint hostility. He said he agreed with Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield that Haynsworth may have shown questionable judgment in ruling while a federal judge on two cases involving companies he was financially involved with.

"JUSTIFIES THOUGHT"

"It justifies some careful thought," said Scott.

Scott also left it up to another Republican member of the Judiciary Committee to release a letter from Nixon that capped a day of steadily increased White House pressure and mounting counter-demands from Democrats and Republicans that Nixon withdraw the nomination.

In a letter to Scott, Nixon said there was nothing in Haynsworth's record to cast doubt on his integrity or to fault his positions on civil rights or labor issues.

"In order that there be no misunderstanding on the part of anyone," wrote Nixon, who is spending the weekend at Key Biscayne, Fla., "I send this letter to confirm that I steadfastly support this nomination and earnestly hope and trust that the Senate Judiciary Committee will proceed with dispatch to approve the nomination."

JUDGE DEFENDED

Copies of the letter were sent to Judiciary Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., and the committee's senior GOP member, Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska, who earlier met with newsmen to defend Haynsworth in a full dress news conference.

It was Hruska who released the Nixon letter late in the day. He accompanied it with a statement of his own branding Nixon's reported plans to allow Haynsworth to withdraw his name as "false and completely unfounded rumors."

Besides the Nixon letter and the Eastland-Hruska news conference, statements supporting Haynsworth, who is now on the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals, came from Sens. Gordon Allott of Colorado and John Tower of Texas.

Allott heads the Republican Policy Committee and Tower chairs the Senate Republican Campaign Committee.

"DO-OR-DIE THING"

"The White House says this is a do-or-die thing, we have to have this," said one GOP senator who has been in the thick of it.

He explained that he usually takes his bike from the outside rack into the YMCA building before dark but this night he took a nap and when he awoke at 8:30 p. m. the stars were out and the thief had hit. Prince uses the bicycle for transportation to Lake Michigan college where he is a student. A few weeks ago the seat was stolen from the bike.

The Politicians Would

Send TV From So-So

To Zero

Two cures for a single malady are slinking around in Washington which should cause even the most modest soul to take pen in hand to his Congressman.

The ailment is the cost of running a political campaign.

Only a handful of people, the candidates and their closer friends, suffer from it, but when an officeholder or potential one senses an ache his constituency is apt to feel a backlash.

The population explosion and a change in American habits have driven campaign expenses up to the roof, no doubt of it.

Television is the best solution to projecting a man before a large audience which no longer looks upon the old style political rally as the entertainment which our forebears so greatly enjoyed.

A Presidential candidate can still draw huge crowds, if the weather is favorable, but even an army mule can not stand up to the demands of barnstorming every nook and cranny in the U.S.

When the magnet drops down to a Senator, a Congressman, a Governor, or the local aspirant, people simply will not turn out as their fathers or grandfathers once did.

The daily newspaper was the first communications medium to bridge this gap in distance, the candidate's durability and the fading audience.

This reporting has two limitations.

Most newspapers will not give the space to a verbatim account of the candidate's remarks and only the most dedicated partisan, for or against the candidate, would read all the guff in a full text.

Radio improved upon this defect. The older reader may recall how effectively FDR projected his matchless speaking ability to the nation.

Television greatly extends this airborne capability. Because it combines sight with sound, the boob tube gives the impression of the candidate rubbing shoulders with his audience.

The drawback to radio and TV is the candidate himself. If he lacks a voice or the makeup man can not create a silk purse from a sow's ear, he will be tuned out.

This is a risk most politicians willingly take and which only a very few scorn.

Having taken the leap, however, they bump into another drawback.

TV costs a fancy penny.

Increasingly, the individual candidates and the party organizations are finding it more difficult to raise a war chest.

Ground to Nixon because the Last year Humphrey lost some Democratic organization could not option the TV time which the Republicans were able to nail down. Some of the difficulty traced to the disunity coming out of the Chicago convention, but the money's absence, not its causes, was the controlling factor.

Because the advertising media are following the same inflationary trend of all goods and services, several suggestions have been put forward to meet the cost problem.

LBJ favored an income tax deduction for political contributions up to $50 or so.

Somebody else in his Administration urged a Congressional appropriation to the two major political machines.

Neither idea caught fire.

The first is of limited value and the second probably would be declared unconstitutional by the courts.

The only dent in the cost fence has been an FCC ruling that radio and TV stations must sell time to candidates in the same discount bracketing they give commercial advertisers.

Outlawing the premium rate once charged by most stations only scratches the surface.

So the Washington milieu is proposing that TV and radio be turned into rescuers.

A bill already is before the House to require radio and TV stations to sell political time at one-third their normal rates.

Newton Minow, the FCC administrator in the Kennedy days, goes this one better.

He is chairman of a private commission financed by the Twentieth Century Fund which this week calls for six hours of political broadcasting by the candidates in the last five weeks of a Presidential campaign.

The candidates would have to appear before the mikes and cameras, willy nilly.

During the prime listening hours, the public would have to listen and watch that yap, or tune out.

The stations, presumably, would have to donate the time and facilities.

Not without reason our's is being called the Age of Nuttiness.

There are more daft thoughts being loosed in a day on improving mankind than emanated during the entire Depression period of the '30s when the country was in its lowest ebb.

Minow startled the broadcasters out of their pants a few years ago when he informed their annual convention that TV is a "vast wasteland."

This is true for much of TV's fare, but what could be drearier than having the politicians hamming up the air waves for five consecutive weeks?

Write your Congressman a letter on black paper today.

Involvement

Backfires

In this age of noninvolvement it takes a rare spark to make a citizen become involved when he chances upon a situation which calls for involvement on the streets of a large city. Stanford Erickson of San Francisco possessed such a spark when he came upon a man beating a woman.

Never mind that hundreds of others were walking or driving by the scene without so much as the time of day. Erickson didn't see things that way, so he grabbed the man. He was struck twice and knocked down for his efforts.

The damage to his civic pride was more severe than his beating. "We appreciate your helping," Erickson was told by an officer later. "When we're in trouble we want guys like you to help us. But you were taken. A sucker. They're man and wife."

What the lawman meant was the wife refused to file charges against her husband and he was released.

The ranks of the noninvolved may have gained another member.

What Is It?

NASA scientists who participated in the initial examination of moon rocks and dust brought back by Apollo 11 may have answered some questions about the origin of the moon and its evolution over millions of years. They also face new ones they had not anticipated.

The very composition of the rocks, which are rich in elements with high boiling points such as titanium, zirconium and chromium, but possess little of the elements with low boiling points usually found in earth rocks, possess the greatest mystery. This composition is different than anything seen before, indicating a unique origin. But what?

..And Speaking

Of Your Health

The value of penicillin for the control and cure of many severe infectious diseases is well-known and needs no further substantiation. This truly wondrous drug unfortunately carries with its benefits some disadvantages. The greatest of these is the occasional severe allergic reactions to the skin and on the mucous membranes of the body which can be more distressing than the illnesses for which the penicillin was given.

Reactions to penicillin are strange because, so frequently, people who have taken it many times with no unusual side effects, suddenly, without any apparent reason, develop an allergic reaction.

Physicians are aware of the possibility of such reactions, and therefore give penicillin and all other antibiotics sparingly and with great caution, particularly if there is the slightest suggestion of an unusual reaction to it. Even with the greatest care, reactions still occur.

It is for this reason that there is a constant search to find a purified penicillin that will accomplish its purpose and not cause these troublesome side effects.

Dr. Gordon T. Stewart of Tulane University is one of a group of researchers testing such a special type of penicillin, produced with highly technical changes from original methods. This newer type of penicillin is being tried in patients who are known to be highly sensitive and vast information already is being accumulated that may soon lead to an ideal, valuable form of penicillin without toxic reactions.

One of the great threats to the elderly who are confined to bed for long periods of time is the formation of ulcers, or breaks in the skin, around the heels, the buttocks, and the elbows. Preventive nursing care is devoted to the constant turning of the patient and using foam protective guards to avoid these ulcers. When once they form, they are exceedingly difficult to control.

At the University of Missouri School of Medicine, Dr. Paul C. Wheeler and Dr. Lester E. Wolcott have been applying, with great success, weak electric currents to these bed ulcers. Many of their cases had failed to respond to any or all of the usual forms of treatment. In an astonishing percentage of cases, the electric current, used in a very specific way, caused slow but progressive healing.

At a conference sponsored by the Stanford Research Institute these encouraging results were discussed and called forth enthusiasm from most of the physicians.

An interesting sidelight to such treatment was noted by one of the doctors using this method: "It is still viewed by many with healthy skepticism since we are involved in an area where quacks have thrived for decades."

This modest statement serves to illustrate that scientists, even in their enthusiasm about a new study, are aware that not everyone will quickly accept it. Once proven, however they will.

Michigan Abortion Laws To Be Argued

Debate Is First Of Issues '69

Liberalization Will Be Question

Whether Michigan's abortion laws should be liberalized is the question for discussion at the first meeting, next Tuesday, of Issues 1969 at the YWCA, St. Joseph.

Arguing for liberalization will be Mrs. James Beckett of Grand Rapids. Dr. Robert Locey, director of the Berrien County Health department, will oppose the idea.

Mrs. Beckett is working for abortion reform as a volunteer in various programs and study groups. In addition, she is a board member of the Michigan Society for Emotionally Disturbed Children and president and founder of Child Haven, the home in Kent county for dependent and neglected children.

Active in school and church affairs and a member of the American Bar association auxiliary, Mrs. Beckett was a delegate to a recent White House Conference on youth.

Dr. Locey came to the Twin Cities in 1964 as director of the Tri-County Health department, now the Berrien County Health department. He had held a similar position in Forsyth county, Winston Salem, N.C.

Dr. Locey is a board member of Planned Parenthood, vice president of the Health Facilities Council, and member of the Berrien County Mental Health service board and the executive committee of Boy Scouts. He has a medical degree from Georgetown university and a master's degree in public health from the University of Michigan.

Moderator of the program will be Mrs. Jerome Gruel, past president and active member of the League of Women Voters.

The meeting begins at 8 p.m. Subjects for discussion on subsequent Tuesday evenings include parochialism, student unrest, Red China, a guaranteed annual income.

Preparing For Nov. 24 Millage Vote

Teacher Pay Listed Among District Problems

By EARLE BERRY
State Editor

WATERVLIET — Some 100 residents and teachers in the Watervliet school district have come up with preliminary findings in a study of the district's curriculum, facilities and finances.

They are studying school needs in preparation for a report to the board of education to determine what amount of extra operational millage is needed by the district. The school board has scheduled a millage vote Nov. 24.

Preliminary findings indicate that the school needs more money to raise the teacher salary scale, reduction of the teacher-pupil ratio and several building improvements, especially at the middle school which formerly housed the high school.

These findings will be presented Tuesday to a steering committee of the Citizens committee. The steering committee will make the formal recommendations to the board of education at its Oct. 13 meeting.

BUDGET ON AGENDA

Adoption of the 1969-70 school year budget also is on the agenda for the board that night. All 12 mills voted for operational purposes in the Watervliet district expire this year and proposals for three mills were defeated by voters in two elections earlier this year.

Organized Sept. 15, the citizens committee formed three subcommittees to make the study.

Robert Young headed the finance committee which compared the Watervliet district's $944,000 1969-70 operating budget with other state school systems. Robert Olson reported that additional instructional funds are needed to increase teachers' salaries and to meet higher supply and textbook costs.

Supt. of Schools Jack D. Riegle said his survey showed Watervliet is lowest district in Berrien county for teachers' salaries. The Watervliet base salary for teachers with a bachelor degree is $6,700.

HALF-DAY KINDERGARTEN

The curriculum study committee headed by Mrs. Vernon Hiler determined that a half day of kindergarten should be added to overcome crowded conditions, a reduction in the pupil-teacher ratio is needed in the later elementary school along with new textbooks, science equipment, supplemental readers, playground equipment and a consultant to help develop an art and physical education program.

Overcrowded classrooms was listed as the biggest problem in the middle school followed by a shortage of equipment. Reduction of class loads and an increase in funds for equipment and teacher materials were listed for the high school.

Lloyd Richcreek heads the buildings and grounds subcommittee which determined these major problem areas in the middle school: improved electrical service, acoustical treatment for most classrooms and replacement of windows on three sides of the building. Elementary school problems were listed as site work to alleviate severe water problems at both North and South schools, instructional equipment at all schools, particularly in shop and science, interior painting at the South school, playground equipment and repair at both buildings and a watering system for the high school grounds.

3 Defendants Ask Jury Trial

Six persons arrested Sept. 20, in a narcotics raid by Berrien county sheriff's deputies answered to charges against them in a variety of ways yesterday in Fifth District court. The case against the seventh was dismissed.

Three young women charged with unlawful use of marijuana stood mute and pleas of innocent were entered for them: Carol Gowen, 20, Evansville, Ind., Patricia Ann Smith, 21, Box 445, Red Arrow highway, Bridgman, and Carolyn Hall, 19, Battle Creek. All requested jury trials and remain free on bond.

Clyde Fisher, 29, of Harbert, originally charged with possession of marijuana, pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of use of marijuana. Judge John Hammond reduced a $10,000 bond to $1,000 pending pre-sentence investigation.

Dismissed on motion of the prosecutor was a charge of possession of marijuana against Richard Bangert, 24, of St. Louis, Mo. who is in the Army and scheduled to go to Vietnam. The seven were arrested, police reported, after a seven-week probe of suspected narcotic traffic in southern Berrien county. An undercover agent participated in the investigation.

Three persons demanded examination on felony charges: James Palmer Jr., 34, of 213 Halstead, Dowagiac, charged with carrying a concealed revolver. Bond was set at $1,000.

Police Cuts Announced In Jackson

JACKSON (AP)—Daryl Miller Jackson's acting police chief, has announced a number of planned cutbacks in police service following a 20 per cent slash in the police department's budget request.

Starting in about 10 days, Jackson police will no longer dispatch an officer to answer calls for assistance which the desk sergeant on duty feels is not serious enough to warrant help.

Other cutbacks include the elimination of service in dog bite cases, minor accidents where no one is injured and property damage is less than $200, and calls to taverns where bartenders are having trouble with drunks.

Chief Miller says he doesn't want his officers to act as bouncers for taverns.

The announced cutbacks came after the police department requested for a budget totaling $1,116,737 was cut by $206,335. This reduced the authorized manpower to 81 from the previous 98.

ST. JOSEPH'S OFFENSE FINALLY EXPLODES, 41-7

By JAKE SHUBINSKI
Staff Sports Writer

KALAMAZOO — For a few fleeting minutes here Friday night, the St. Joseph Bears were in trouble.

They fumbled the opening kickoff twice (but managed to retain possession), were penalized five yards on their first offensive play of the game, lost the ball on third play from scrimmage and were stung with a 30-yard scoring pass from quarterback Jeff Randall to halfback Doug Tracy on Norrix' first play of the game.

All of this took place in 95 seconds.

But the Bears overcame their early ineptness to roll over the Knights by a 41-7 count and move into the Big Six conference lead with a 2-0 record.

The victory was the fourth in a row for the Bears and their fifth in a row over two seasons. Not since the final two games of the 1965 season and the first two games of 1966 has a St.

Joseph team won five straight.

The 41 points were the most scored by the Bears since they beat Lakeshore 41-14 in the opener of the 1963 season.

"The guys were so tight in the dressing room before the game I thought they were going to explode," said coach Ike Muhlkamp, trying to explain why the Bears fumbled the ball for the sixth time with 2:23 still left in the first period.

"Then, too, that ball was wet from the dew on the grass," added the St. Joseph coach.

While Muhlkamp credited the St. Joseph defense with another fine job, the offense rolled up its biggest totals of the season.

Led by the running of Mark Engelhardt who raced for 99 yards in 14 carries and Bill Hamilton with 43 yards in 13 attempts, the Bears gained 213 yards on the ground and added 171 in the air.

"The defense got the ball several times for us with good field positions," said Muhlkamp.

Twice Jerry Helmker fell on Norrix fumbles, the first of which led to the TD that put the Bears in front. On pass defense, Bob Basselman got his second and third interceptions in the past two games and Dave Hedstrom and Jeff Zimmerman grabbed off one each.

One of Basselman's set up a touchdown and the grab by Zimmerman came on the last play of the game and stopped a Norrix touchdown drive against reserves at the goal line.

St. Joseph's passing attack, which laid dormant for three games, came to life like a giant awaking from a deep sleep early in the first period.

After Engelhardt gained two yards to his own 15 after the Norrix kickoff, starting quarterback Mike Damschroder found Stan Watts all by himself at the 50-yard line.

Watts gathered in the pass and ran down the far sidelines until he was hauled down from behind at the Norrix six. This play gained the Bears 79 yards, 56 yards more than they had gained passing in three previous games.

Two plays later Engelhardt scored from the two and kicked the tying point to launch himself on a night that produced 23 points on three touchdowns and five extra points for the St. Joseph senior.

The two teams spent the rest of the period exchanging fumbles.

Miller Sparks 18-8 Victory

Tigers 'Erase' Ottawa

By JIM DeLAND
Sports Editor

Benton Harbor's Tigers started out by erasing their own touchdowns but wound up by wiping out a tribe of Indians Friday night.

The running of fullback Maurice Miller and a hard-hitting defense lifted the Tigers above their own mistakes and carried them to an 18-8 victory over Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills before 4,000 fans at Filstrup Field.

"We'll take it," Tiger coach Les Butgereit sighed wearily of Benton Harbor's second straight victory and third in four games. "I'm just thankful we could look like that and still win. We just played so terrible."

It was an agonizing sort of evening for the Tigers, who saw an 81-yard touchdown run by Don Hopkins on the opening kickoff wiped out by a penalty and never seemed to recover their magic touch again.

"That hurt us psychologically," Butgereit admitted of the clipping penalty that erased

Hopkins' long TD run. "You know... you get your head down after something like that. You shouldn't, but you do."

Despite the instant letdown and a host of other errors the Tigers managed to control the game and ran up an 18-0 lead before Ottawa finally penetrated the goal line late in the fourth quarter.

Miller powered the offense as he carried the ball 21 times for 119 yards and the Tigers' first two touchdowns and swingback Frank Atkinson added the third TD by teaming up with quarterback Mark Fry on a dazzling 46-yard pass play.

"That upback (Miller) hurt us," Ottawa coach Jim Emery admitted. "We didn't see him do much against Hackett last week, but we saw more than we wanted to tonight."

Hopkins, who shouldered the major load in the Tigers' first three games, picked up 72 yards in 12 carries but was never able to break loose or cross the goal line again after his burst on the opening kickoff.

Benton Harbor's defense stripped the Indians of four fumbles with Tim Culby recovering two while Miller and Arister Hicks each covered one, and the Tiger defenders protected their goal line valiantly until they finally wore down under a 10-minute assault in the fourth quarter.

The Tigers' troubles in the first half consisted mainly of five penalties that were walked off for 65 yards and erased gains of 69 yards and two touchdowns.

Penalties and fumbles repeatedly broke up an otherwise consistent Tiger attack that rolled up 222 yards on the ground, 85 more on Fry's passing and only once in the entire game was stopped for a loss.

Ottawa also was victimized by fumbles, however, including two in the second quarter that allowed Benton Harbor to leave at intermission with a 6-0 lead.

Culby started the Tigers on the way by covering a bobble by Indian quarterback Mark Telego at the Ottawa 33 and Miller blasted six yards for the TD after a jitterbug 11-yard reverse by Glenn Bishop.

Ottawa hammered right back however, with the help of a major push on a play against the Tigers, but a 68-yard march ended in frustration when tailback L. C. Borrell fumbled the ball into the end zone on a first-down play from the two-yard line and Miller recovered for Benton Harbor.

The Tigers drove 75 yards for their second touchdown with Miller picking up three first downs along the route and then exploding up the middle for the final 25 yards on a play Butgereit called at the sidelines when Ottawa took a time out.

Atkinson ran the score to 18-0 with less than two minutes gone in the fourth quarter when he took a swing pass from Fry, danced his way through some would-be tacklers, and simply ran right past Ottawa's two deep defenders.

The Tigers ran only one play in the next 10 minutes, however, and that was a fumble recovered by Ottawa's Jim Boscher at the Benton Harbor 45-yard line. The Indians took it in from there in eight plays, with halfback Scott Lancashire sweeping right end for the final seven yards and fullback Roland Crawford battering over for the two extra points.

Ottawa successfully pulled off an outside kick with Ron Wade recovering at the Harbor 45 while the Tigers looked on, but Culby's second fumble recovery and a series of incomplete passes thwarted the Indians' final two bids.

Several Tigers were banged up during the contest, including Bishop, and Steve Harris and tackle Mike Frazier, who was taken to the hospital for X-rays of a knee injury after the game.

Benton Harbor, off to its best start since 1963, takes to the road next Friday for another non-conference battle against Kalamazoo Central.

Ottawa now is 2-2 for the season.

Allison 'Engine' Powers Rams In 30-20 Flight Over Paw Paw

By JOHN VANDEN HEED
Staff Sports Writer

SOUTH HAVEN — The old Allison was hitting on all cylinders as South Haven soared to a 30-20 Wolverine victory over Paw Paw here Friday night.

Tailback Odis Allison kept the Rams flying along in the conference race by scampering for three touchdowns and a pair of two point conversions. The South Haven senior finished with a career best of 194 yards in 24 carries while posting six-pointers on dashes of 9, 88 and 4 yards.

His performance overshadowed Paw Paw's Tim DeLaan, who entered the game as southwestern Michigan's leading scorer. The Redskin halfback did bring fans to their feet by scoring on the very first play of the game with a 63-yard burst through the stunned Rams. But DeLaan was shut out at the goal line the rest of the way, although he did finish with 161 yards in 19 totes.

The first half was particularly explosive as Ram fullback Roger West chipped in with a 72 yard run to go with the long run by DeLaan and Allison.

South Haven ran only 16 plays over the first 24 minutes, including 11 rushing, but led 22-14 at halftime with an offensive total of 203 yards.

Both defenses seemed to adjust to the second half as the big play disappeared. The only touchdowns the rest of the way were on Allison's four-yard run and a two-yard sneak by Redskin quarterback Steve Payne.

The game's other touchdown came in the second quarter on a two-yard run by Paw Paw's Paul Hamre, who gave the Redskins a fine 1-2 running punch by finishing with 61 yards in 17 attempts.

South Haven wound up with an offensive total of 402 yards, which had Bob Feely shaking his head afterwards.

"Each week it gets more confusing," said the veteran Ram coach. "Last week it was the linemen that were scoring, and this week it was the offense that got rolling."

"The first part of the ballgame they were looping outside so we sent West straight up the middle. And we caught them stunting to the inside a few times with our sweeps."

It was another frustrating loss for Paw Paw, which has now lost 17 straight Wolverine games and allowed at least two touchdowns in 19 consecutive league games. And the Redskins have yet to beat South Haven in their eight-game series, although there was a 25-25 tie in 1964.

"A few mental lapses has cost us three ballgames," mused Paw Paw coach Chuck Salvano. "The offense looks like a machine out there, but the defense has mental lapses that cause those long plays and that's it."

Paw Paw had scoring threats stopped by South Haven at its own 21 and 10-yard lines in the first half. Feely named safeties Bob Knapp and Mike Feely, plus outside linebacker Tom Holman as his defensive standouts.

South Haven was also within striking distance on two other occasions.

The Rams took over the ball with less than a minute left in the first half and quickly got a first down on the Paw Paw 15 on a 37-yard pass from quarterback Hank Stone to end Gary Taylor. But with 30 seconds left a Stone pass was intercepted by Paw Paw's DeLaan.

And on the first play of the fourth quarter, on a fourth down at the Redskins 11, Stone hit Allison with a perfect strike in the end zone but he dropped the ball.

The Bulldogs had an offensive total of just 60 yards while losing the ball five times on pass interceptions and four times on fumbles.

Sisson picked off two of Covert's passes, while Mike Salvano, John Jacobs and Groth had one apiece. Jerry Conklin was credited with two of the fumble recoveries, while Larry Wright and Groth got the other two.

Named as defensive standouts by Lawrence coach Tom Allison were linebackers Sisson, Wright, Jacobs and Groth, Conklin at end and Zabicki at safety.

Lawrence's passing attack moved the ball better than the ground game while netting 217 yards. Cornwell completed 11 of 19 attempts with Jacobs and Zabicki the leading receivers.

Lawrence has now won seven straight Al-Van games and scored at least three touchdowns in its last eight league games. The Tigers share the conference lead with Bloomingdale and Gobles at 3-0 and are 3-1 overall.

Covert is still looking for its first victory after dropping four in a row and allowing at least 24 points in each tilt.

Sophomore halfback Barry Sisson tallied five touchdowns and a two-point PAT to lead a point surge which was the highest in the 14-year history of football at Lawrence. The era covers a total of 93 games.

Sisson, a 5-10, 170-pounder, picked up a good share of Lawrence's 175-yard rushing total on TD runs of 7, 33, 13 and 26 yards. His other six-pointer came on a 42-yard pass interception.

Lawrence's other touchdowns came on a 10-yard run by Tony Zabicki, a one-yard run by Nick Groth and a five-yard run by Craig Cornwell. The Tigers also got two other PATs on a pass
